TIPS: 4 BLIXEN FORCE 1 A BEAR AFFAIR 7 DANCE A JIG

PREVIEW: Amo Racing and rising Ireland-based trainer Robson De Aguiar have two notable contenders in a bid to get the new Flat season off to a flyer. Blixen Force was well touted in the early betting for this race and must be taken seriously on that basis, while Ocean Club is a nicely-bred colt who could be a useful second string. However, preference is for A BEAR AFFAIR, who is suitably reared for speed and represents a yard responsible for two of the last four Brocklesby winners. Dance A Jig, Arrbob and Step To Glory are other appealing options.

TIPS: 9 MONTASSIB 3 SPYCATCHER 7 JASOUR

PREVIEW: Last year's winner SPYCATCHER has got better with age and although he picks up a 5lb penalty for winning a Group 3 in France, he could be up to the task given he carried the same burden when he won the Wentworth over C&D when last seen. Montassib, who won this in 2024, could only manage fifth in that race and may again find the Karl Burke-trained gelding to be his nemesis. My Mate Alfie is a notable alternative on debut for David O'Meara, while Jasour drops in class and is dangerous to ignore.

PREVIEW: Not one favourite has obliged in this over the last 10 years, which doesn't bode particularly well for Mezcala, who was the subject of good early support at declaration time. Jack Channon's four-year-old is unexposed and may well have sufficient ability to buck the trend but there are some very wily characters amassed and preference is for DESPERATE DAN, who was last seen registering a gutsy victory over C&D in October. Lir Speciale also enters the equation having won a brace of 7f events here last autumn. Carron, Pressure's On and Classic Encounter all have each-way prospects.

A desperately unlucky loser in the Britannia at Royal Ascot, he made a pleasing reintroduction when fourth in the Lincoln Trial at Wolverhampton and that outing should bring him on nicely. Eternal Force represents a yard that has won this contest five times, most notably with Addeybb in 2018 and last year with Godwinson, and he arrives in search of a four-timer after impressing at Haydock on his final appearance last term. Rogue Diplomat ended last season winning four on the bounce, including a brace of 7f handicaps here in the autumn, and he enters calculations along with Botanical, who makes his first start for Karl Burke, and Anno Domini, with Charlie Appleby opting to utilise Toby Moore's 7lb claim.

TIPS: 9 VALENDAY 8 TURTY TREE 2 HIGH STORM

PREVIEW: High Storm sets the standard with an official rating of 80 and improved for going up in trip when chasing home a well-bred Godolphin newcomer at Southwell last month. That said, it wouldn't be a massive surprise if a less-exposed rival in the shape of TURTY TREE came out on top. The son of New Bay made a promising start when runner-up over a mile at Newmarket, shaping as though a step up in distance would suit, and his stable couldn't be in better form. Valenday ran with plenty of credit on both starts at York, despite not looking the most straightforward, while Super Crown and Marasi Bay are newcomers of significant interest.

PREVIEW: MAO SHANG WONG got off the mark in impressive fashion over this trip at Newcastle earlier in the month and the unexposed four-year-old may be able to defy a 5lb rise. Bownder was narrowly denied at Lingfield most recently and is an obvious threat, while Up The Jazz is another with good recent all-weather form to his name and has to be noted. Any market support for Glint Of Light would be interesting.

PREVIEW: HASHTAGNOTIONS showed promise when filling third place on the back of a short break at Newcastle last week. He could be hard to beat with the benefit of that outing and a first-time hood may also help his chances. Golspie was a place behind the selection that day and has to be of interest as a result. Others to note are Endless Whisper and Dancing Tiger.
